

I do not want to see any proposals initiated that would allow telemarketers to once again invade my home with phone calls. My calls have gone from 10 or 12 a week to sometimes none. I should not have to put up with calls of this type on a phone that I pay the monthly bill for. I consider telemarketing by phone an invasion of my home privacy.